

You have options. The Office of Equity can help.

www.northwestern.edu/equity

The Office of Equity can help you:

Call the Office of Equity at +1 847 491 2054 for confidential support. We can help you understand your options, connect you with resources, and provide support throughout the process. You can also reach out to your local Equity Center for more information.

Talk to a confidential resource:

Call the Office of Equity at +1 847 491 2054 for confidential support. We can help you understand your options, connect you with resources, and provide support throughout the process. You can also reach out to your local Equity Center for more information.

File a report or request supportive measures:

Call the Office of Equity at +1 847 467 6165 for confidential support. We can help you understand your options, connect you with resources, and provide support throughout the process. You can also reach out to your local Equity Center for more information.

Seek medical or safety assistance:

Call the Office of Equity at +1 847 4454 1244 for confidential support. We can help you understand your options, connect you with resources, and provide support throughout the process. You can also reach out to your local Equity Center for more information.